While the Tuscan countryside, and in particular the environs of Borgo Santo Pietro, have been virtually unscathed during the health concerns the country, and especially the north of Italy, has been facing we have spared no expense to comply with the stringent health and safety regulations

We have implemented top-of-the-range certified and environmentally friendly sanitizing equipment and staff training as well as providing signature Borgo face masks. Daily sanitizing of all areas is accomplished in a detailed fashion throughout the Hotel in order to ensure maximum safety and wellbeing to all our guests and staff. Each of our rooms is equipped with stand-alone air-conditioning units which also contribute to providing a clean and secure environment. Notwithstanding these vital measures, we will continue to provide the ultimate nature-meets-luxury experiences you are accustomed to.
